

Trust? So What is It?

© Beverly Schmitt, All Rights Reserved

Quick Definition:

What makes a person worthy of trust?

Suppose an individual, like Hamon for example, is visiting your parents at your home. Moreover, this person has demonstrated to you and others on more than one occasion that they are unworthy of trust. How should you behave around that individual? (and, yes, you must be polite!)

Discuss Jesus' statement in Matthew 7:6 ...

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs,
neither cast ye your pearls before swine,
lest they trample them under their feet,
and turn again and rend you.

Jot down things that come to mind ...

Compare the old adage "Discretion is the better part of valor" to Matthew 7:6. How are they alike/different?

alike

different

How would the character traits of courage and boldness add to Esther's beauty and charm?

Both Helen of Troy and Esther were beautiful women. Which woman, Helen or Esther, do you think had more endearing qualities? Why?

Both Helen and Esther, due to their station in life, dressed exquisitely with beautiful jewels. How do you think the clothing, jewelry, and material possessions they owned impacted them?

Helen of Troy

Esther

Do clothing, jewelry, and material possessions cause humans to make good or poor decisions?

_____ yes

_____ no

_____ haven't the foggiest

or, are human beings responsible for their decisions? Why?
